Student Virtual Poster Competition

ABSTRACTS DUE: February 15, 2021

The 2021 symposium, “Fostering Resilience Through Indigenous Wisdom & Scientific Knowledge,” brings together students, faculty, staff, clinicians and colleagues from across the region to explore the breadth of global health.

Who can submit virtual poster presentations?
Presentations are welcome from UW-Madison and the wider global health communities. Only students—undergraduate, graduate and professional—are eligible for the poster competition.

What is the virtual format?
PowerPoint slides with an embedded 3 to 5 minute video summarizing the work. Submit an abstract.

Why enter the Best Student Virtual Poster Competition?
Four $500 scholarships will be awarded to the winning presentations.
